

REVISION OF THE CHURCH ELECTORAL ROLL

Having been halted by lockdown back in March, the annual revision of the Church Electoral Roll is now taking place in September. Notice is hereby given that the Roll will open for applications on Sunday 13 September and close on 27 September. The list of names on the current Roll is displayed for people to check in the following ways:

- ❖ A copy is displayed in church
- ❖ The list is available online but you will need access information emailed from the parish office to open it; call or email to receive this
- ❖ Call the parish office who will check for you

If you are not on the Roll and would like to be, please complete an application form. These will be in church or available by email from the parish office.
